*Your profile should be completed and submitted to your counselor before they write a letter of recommendation for you. Please email your responses to your counselor.

As you reflect and write about some of the topics below, keep in mind the goal of the counselor recommendation is to convey your character and any personal qualities that test scores and grades alone don't reveal. Teacher recommendations and your transcript will reflect your academic accomplishments.

I. Please provide short responses for the following:

- List and describe your three most distinguishing or most admirable qualities?

- What is your most outstanding accomplishment or experience to date and why you take pride in it?

- What have you done to demonstrate leadership?

- Are there any personal or family experiences that have had a strong impact on you that you would like me to discuss in your letter of recommendation?

- A value is something we cherish and is not open to compromise. Describe one of your values and explain why it is important to you.

- What is the most valuable thing you have learned in high school?
- What do you hope to accomplish in college and after? Consider your career goals and broader goals.
- What kind of learner are you? Which academic setting or assignments help you thrive?
- What are your favorite areas of study?
- Who are two teachers who know you well?
- Please list the colleges / universities that you are applying to this year.

II. Please build your resume on Naviance. Let your counselor know when it is done!
